

Dogs Behind Bars Slide Show

View a slide show of images from several of America's prisons that run programs to train dogs.

Dogs are being locked up behind bars across the country. They're not serving hard time. Instead, they're helping rehabilitate inmates — and sometimes vice versa — through unique prison programs. View the below slide show to see photos from such programs currently operating.