

Coming Next Month

August 2008

FEATURES

Burn some rubber. For our final suggestion on how to spice up your summer vacation, we have just two letters for you: RV. You won't find a more dog-friendly accommodation than your own home away from home on wheels.

Creaky, squeaky dog. Aging comes with a grab bag of "goodies," some of which both humans and dogs experience. Arthritis is one of those afflictions. But a little stiffness doesn't have to freeze your dog's fun. Find out what new treatments are available and which medications can help.

And the winner is ... You sent in hundreds of entries for our Cutest Puppy Contest, and trust us, it wasn't easy deciding between all those adorable faces. But somehow we managed to narrow the field down to the five cutest of them all.

PLUS

Our newest addition. August may mark the end of summer for a lot of people, but here at DOG FANCY, it's the start of something brand new. For the first time, readers will get to enjoy a special Natural Dog supplement that begins at the back of the magazine. With articles on natural care, tips, and products, this special section gives you even more to love about DOG FANCY.

BREEDS

Meet the lively Dachshund, the determined Miniature Bull Terrier, and the dependable Wirehaired Pointing Griffon.