

Start a Bow-Wow Business

For dog lovers, dog sitting is a great way to earn some extra cash.

By Lara Farrell

Have you ever thought about starting your own business? If so, you might consider offering dog-sitting services to your neighbors. You'd get to have fun hanging out with someone else's dog and make money at the same time! If you love dogs, but your parents won't let you have a furry friend of your own, starting your own dog-sitting business is an outstanding way to show them how responsible you can be.