Toasty Travel

If car travel stresses your dog, or inclement weather causes it on-road discomfort, opt for the Heated Seat Cover and Heated Cargo Pad, from ColdHead, the company that brought you the Dolce Vita Traveler pet bed. The two products, which fit in the backseats of most cars and backs of SUVs or wagons, evenly distribute heat using its patent-pending Flat Screen Heater.

Picture Perfect

If a four-by-six photo doesn't do your show champion and beloved companion justice, consider Canvas on Demand. Within four or five business days, a digitally rendered canvas with your dog's image will appear at your doorstep. Options include a realistic interpretation, a dreamy artistic rendering, a color photo converted to black-and-white or sepia and much more. Prices vary according to size, treatment and frame.

Positive Impediments

Brake-Fast dog food bowls are molded with three cylindrical impediments in the center, positioned to slow down a dog's eating and help reduce Gastric Dilatation-Volvulus (GDV or bloat). The dishwasher-safe bowls can accommodate up to five cups of kibble or canned food, according to the company. Large- and small-sized bowls available June 2007.

The Long Stretch

Just Ducky Products introduces The Perfect Leash, designed with a proprietary polyurethane material that stretches and elongates when dogs pull. The product design features a patented handle that provides a comfortable grip for adults and children, according to the company. The product comes in two sizes, the walker and the heeler, and is available in four color choices.
