New products

Light Bright

Your beloved canine may bring an array of unwelcome guests into your house. Halo Technologies sheds light on this problem with the UV-ST germ-killing vacuum. According to the manufacturer, the ultraviolet light the vacuum emits traps and kills 99.9 percent of dust mites, flea eggs, bacteria and mold. The vacuum also suctions shed hair and dirt using two high-powered motors.

Alpha and Omega

Dog owners who seek supplements for their canine can look to HealthGUARD dog vitamins. Manufactured in labs that meet the same requirements as human-grade supplement facilities, the company claims, these supplements provide omega-3 and omega-6 fatty acids, known to improve cardiovascular health, skin, and the immune system.
