

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (12-01-06).

Posted: December 1, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

Dog Park Will Be Tested for Radiation

Relenting to community concerns, the federal government announced this week it will perform tests on a dog park where researchers buried radioactive medical waste, The Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Baltimore Woman Is Many Dogs' Best Friend

South Baltimore resident finds homes for mutts whose time at a shelter is almost up, The Baltimore Sun reports.

Read the article >>

K9s Get a Little Extra Protection

The Delaware State Police received a $4,000 gift to purchase ballistic vests for five of the division's 25 police dogs, The Wilmington (Del.) News Journal reports.

Read the article >>

Sheriff's Office Gives Dogs Back to Owners

Battered and bruised, eight dogs involved in a busted dogfighting ring have been turned over to the homeowners who hosted the fight, The Sumter (S.C.) Item reports.

Read the article >>

Man Ordered to Give Up Dogs

A man found with 32 German Shepherd Dogs in an old school bus last summer has been ordered to forfeit the animals because he couldn't properly care for them, the Associated Press reports in the Laconia (N.H.) Citizen.

Read the article >>

No Proof of Plot to Slay Sled Dogs, Report Says

A final report into allegations that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police organized mass slaughters of Inuit sled dogs between 1950 and 1970 has found no evidence of a plot, the Canadian Press reports in the Toronto (Ontario, Canada) Globe and Mail.

Read the article >>