

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (12-05-06).

Posted: December 5, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

Dogs Help Students Deal with Stress

Central Michigan University is inviting dogs to campus this week to help students with the stress of exams, Central Michigan Life reports.

Read the article >>

'Bark Park' to Open

Dogs will have a new place to romp and do other doggie kinds of things at the city's first bark park, which opens today, The Indianapolis Star reports.

Read the article >>

People Healing Dogs and Vice Versa

A pet reading – in which an expert animal communicator meets a pet to figure out illnesses or misbehaviors – was one of the services offered to pet owners who attended a holiday pet fair, The (N.Y.) Journal News reports.

Read the article >>

Couple Seeks Compensation for Death of Dog

When a dog was fatally shot by a man after wandering onto the man's property, a couple sued for compensation for their emotional distress and loss of companionship, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Fight Expected Over Park Use

The debate over off-leash park space in Vancouver, British Columbia, is expected to heat up this week, as the park board holds public forums in an effort to find a compromise solution to the ongoing controversy, CBC News reports.

Read the article >>