“Charlotte’s Web” actress Dakota Fanning, who recently whined to Entertainment Weekly that she wants a dog “really, really bad,” has gotten her wish.

Gossip columnist Cindy Adams reported this week that the actress received an 8-month-old Miniature Schnoodle, which is a mix of Miniature Schnauzer and Poodle.

Fanning had told Entertainment Weekly that her mom was the main obstacle to her getting a dog. “My mom’s really clean, and she thinks dogs are dirty, so I don’t know if I’m going to get one anytime soon.”

No word yet on the new dog’s name.
