

Bark & Whine Ball to Benefit the SPCA

Register now for San Francisco's 11th annual Ball.

Posted: December 19, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

Critter Lovers at Work, the volunteer fundraising arm of the San Francisco SPCA, has announced that the 11th annual Bark & Whine Ball will be held on Thurs., March 1.

The annual Ball features a cocktail buffet, silent auction, and the opportunity for owners to woof it up dancing. Dog walkers and photographers will be on hand to entertain human and canine guests alike.

Proceeds will benefit the SPCA Cinderella Fund, which provides special treatment and medical care for ill and injured homeless dogs and cats.

Visit <http://www.sfspca.org/barkandwhine/> for more information and to register.