

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (01-03-07).

Posted: January 3, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Residents Have to Scratch for Dog Licenses

Every January when dog licenses come up for renewal, dog lovers in a Utah ski town go wild with anticipation. They start counting the dogs rumored to have died or left town with their owners, hoping that a few of the 42 licenses allowed will be up for grabs, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Future Guide Dogs Trained at College

For a third year, Rowan University students are raising puppies destined to become Seeing Eye dogs, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Dogs Teach Kids New Tricks

A library is trying a program designed to improve children's reading and communication skills using therapy dogs, The Topeka (Kan.) Capital Journal reports.

Read the article >>

Police Seeking Sponsors for New Canines

Retirement has depleted not only the human ranks of the Manchester Police Department, but also the four-footed members of the K9 unit, The Manchester (N.H.) Union Leader reports.

Read the article >>

New State Law Limits Tethering of Dogs

California dog owners who leave their four-legged friends chained up for more than three hours could face a fine of up to $1,000 and six months in jail, The San Diego Union-Tribune reports.

Read the article >>