

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (01-06-07).

Posted: January 6, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Animal Shelter to Stay Open Amid Construction

Rumors that the Orange County Humane Society animal shelter is closing are false, but a remodeling of the shelter is scheduled to begin later this month, The Orange County (Calif.) Register reports.

Read the article >>

A Dog's Life Improves

New laws serving as a watchdog for man's best friend by aiming to keep dogs off chains and out of hot cars sound like music to the ears of local animal advocates, The Ukiah (Calif.) Daily Journal reports.

Read the article >>

Here, Dogs Are Pampered Naturally

As the owner of Dirty Dawgs, a self-serve dog wash and boutique, a woman is targeting customers like herself -- people who want to buy organic and eco-friendly spa products and foods for canines, The Arizona Daily Star reports.

Read the article >>

Man's Dogs Won't Be Returned

Dogs won't be returned to a man charged with fighting them, The Battle Creek (Mich.) Enquirer reports.

Read the article >>

Last Chance for Dozens of Dogs Who Need Homes

Time is running out for more than 30 dogs at the Bureau of Animal Regulation and Care in Houston, KHOU-TV in Houston reports.

Read the article >>

67 Dogs Impounded at Rural Residence

A woman who was cited for animal cruelty reportedly told officers that she had operated a dog kennel at her residence for 10 years, but had not been active for the past six months, The Bluffton (Ind.) News-Banner reports.

Read the article >>