

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (01-11-07).

Posted: January 11, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Owners Use Pills to Calm Energetic Dogs

For an increasing number of pet owners, relief comes from popping a Prozac into their cat or dog, The Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Dogs Take to the Skies in Greater Numbers

Increasing numbers of people are taking pets on business trips, The New York Times reports.

Read the article >>

Puppy Raisers Reluctantly Give Animal to Guide Dogs for the Blind

By handing a leash over at the December Guide Dogs for the Blind graduation ceremony, one family of Selma symbolically relinquished responsibility of the dog they raised for the past year, The Selma (Calif.) Enterprise reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Obesity a Growing Problem

Allowing a dog to be overweight increases the chance of injuries – especially if an obese dog suddenly springs to chase something and hurts itself jumping over a log or rock, The Tahoe (Calif.) Daily Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

Residents Upset with Stray Dogs

Worthington, Ind., residents appealed to members of the Worthington Town Council for help with a reoccurring stray dog problem in their neighborhood, and pledged to take matters into their own hands if the town is not responsive, The Linton (Ind.) Daily Citizen reports.

Read the article >>