

Hotel to Lavish Westminster Dog Show Pooches

Westminster Dog Show participants staying at New York's Hotel Pennsylvania will find a variety of onsite activities and amenities.

Posted: January 20, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

New York's Hotel Pennsylvania will again be the host hotel for canines participating in the annual Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show, which takes place on Feb. 12 and 13, 2007 at Madison Square Garden.

The hotel has created numerous events and services to coincide with the show, including: A live pre-show broadcast satellite feed. A red carpet pre-Westminster fashion show benefit on Feb. 10, which will feature canine gown and tuxedo designs from Ada Nieves of New York Pup Cake Studios. The Green Room Salon & Spaw, sponsored by 1st In-Line Inc., with bathing and salon services, an exercise area, walking area and his and hers relieving area, as well as the Dog-tor's Corner, with a veterinarian, canine masseuse and animal communicator. A doggie concierge to handle canine interviews and special food orders.

"We welcome Westminster VIPs (Very Important Pooches) with open arms ... and paws," said Steve Leonard of the hotel. "Given our unique amenities and year-round pet-friendly accommodations, we are the ideal hotel for Westminster Dog Show guests and year-round travelers with pets."

For more information, visit www.hotelpenn.com