

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (01-25-07).

Posted: January 25, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

The Home of Happy Chows

One couple really loves their Chow Chows; they even built them their own 900-square-foot, $80,000 place, The San Diego Union-Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

Volunteer with Greyhound Group Gives in to Urge to Adopt

Florida woman couldn't resist a brindle dog while volunteering at the Greyhound Pets of America, a nonprofit organization that takes in older dogs, or younger ones that don't take to racing, The Palm Beach (Fla.) Post reports.

Read the article >>

For Competitive Canines, Nutrition, Hydration Can Rival Training

Feeding sled dogs — particularly those training for or competing in a race as demanding as the Tustumena 200 — takes more than just buying a bulk amount of whatever dog food is on sale at the supermarket, The Peninsula (AK) Clarion reports.

Read the article >>

Couple's 3-Legged Canines are Partners in Pep

One couple's two-dog household is not only special, but exceptional, because both dogs have only three legs, The Joliet (Ill.) Herald News reports.

Read the article >>

Police Dogs Become Blood Donors

Dogs working for a Scottish police force are to become blood donors to help tackle a national supply shortage, BBC News in the United Kingdom reports.

Read the article >>

SPCA Looking Into Dog Attack

A woman who witnessed a brutal dog-on-dog attack is asking for the owner of the canine that attacked and killed a Poodle on Jan. 17 to come forward before something worse happens, The Parksville Qualicum (British Columbia, Canada) News reports.

Read the article >>