

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (02-02-07).

Posted: February 2, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Pit Bulls Aren't Alone in City's Dog Plan

Tupelo, Miss., leaders who once wanted to outlaw American Pit Bull Terriers to solve the community's vicious-dog problem now say a breed-specific ordinance is unlikely and instead want a broad program involving the city and Tupelo-Lee Humane Society, The Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal reports.

Read the article >>

Signs Should Fix Dog Issue

Residents says clear signage is the only restraint needed to bring the Pierce Island leash-law issue to heal, The Foster's Daily Democrat in Dover, N.H., reports.

Read the article >>

Paws for a Cause

A dog park was carved out of an acre of Templin Beach Park in 2004, but no shelter was ever put up to keep the dogs' owners out of the rain; now a pack of dog owners hope to change all that, The (Roseburg, Ore.) News-Review reports.

Read the article >>

Owner Heads to Court to Fight for Dog's Life

A Florida woman says her dog, a Boxer named Max, has never bitten a person or injured another animal, but two code enforcement boards have concluded that Max is a dangerous dog based on sworn affidavits detailing aggressive, attacking behavior, The Ocala (Fla.) Star-Banner reports.

Read the article >>

Dogs Get Own Beach on Holiday Island

Dogs are to get a beach of their own on the sun-kissed Mediterranean island of Cyprus, Reuters reports.

Read the article >>