

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (02-14-07).

Posted: February 14, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

One Dog Stands Alone Among Champions

Harry, or Ch. Hobergays Fineus Fogg, lounged alone in the pooch equivalent of the on-deck circle during the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show; not a single Dandie would challenge him at Madison Square Garden, The N.Y. Times reports.
Read the article >>

Dog Awakens Couple During House Fire

A man in western Ohio said the family dog likely saved him and his fiancée from a weekend fire at their home, The Associated Press reports.
Read the article >>

Man Reaches 'Nirvana for Dog Show People'

An Escondido, Calif., resident is a dog show judge, part of the select group chosen to pick winners at Westminster, the top canine contest in America, The San Diego Union-Tribune reports.
Read the article >>

Dog Likely Saved Family During House Fire

A dog alerted his owner that his neighbors' house was on fire; the man then ran next door, The Guelph (O.N., Canada) Mercury reports.
Read the article >>

Honda Loses Team, Dog Dies

A 5-year-old dog competing in the Yukon Quest International Sled Dog Race died after choking on her own vomit, The Fairbanks (Alaska) Daily News-Miner reports.
Read the article >>

The Party Scene Goes to the Dogs

It's hard to say who's the bigger party animal — the dogs competing in the 131st Westminster Dog Show at Madison Square Garden, or the humans holding their leads, USA Today reports.
Read the article >>