

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (02-16-07).

Posted: February 16, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Council Votes to Lift Ban in City Park

After more than an hour of public testimony and discussion at City Hall, councilors voted 6-0 to allow dogs to return to Geiser Pollman, Baker City, Oregon's largest and most popular city-owned park, The Baker City (Ore.) Herald reports. Read the article >>

Puppy Rescued from Sweltering Locked Car

A Chihuahua puppy made history when animal control officers under authority of a new law rescued him from a locked, parked car as the vehicle's interior temperature allegedly topped 100 degrees, The Whittier (Calif.) Daily News reports. Read the article >>

Groomer Allegedly Cuts Dog's Ear Off

A woman rushed her dog to the veterinarian to learn that the dog's ear had been cut off by a dog groomer and super-glued back on, KIRO-TV in Seattle reports. Read the article >>

Study: Detector Dogs Spur Smugglers to Mask Contraband

A federal study in Canada says smugglers may be switching tactics to take the bite out of their four-legged opponents – canny canines who sniff for illicit drugs, plants and currency, The Canadian Press reports. Read the article >>

Fire Authority Canine Dies

A spinal injury leads to death for an arson-sniffing canine at Howell Area Fire Authority, The Ann Arbor (Mich.) News reports. Read the article >>