

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (02-26-07).

Posted: February 26, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Dog's Life Can Cost an Arm and Hind Leg

When you see that little doggie in the window, you're probably not thinking about money, but you should; the expense of owning a dog can be startling if you add up everything you may have to buy, USA Today reports.

Read the article >>

Experts Warn Climbers Against Bringing Dogs

Despite the feel-good story of Velvet, the black Labrador Retriever mix who helped keep three Mount Hood hikers warm and alive, some experts say taking dogs up the mountain for warmth and companionship is a foolhardy practice that could do more harm than good, The Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Home-Cooked Meals for Pets Popular, But Complicated

Despite a cultural reluctance to spend more than 30 minutes making dinner, a growing number of Americans are happy to invest plenty of time — and money — cooking up gourmet grub for their four-legged family members, The Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

No Charges in Case of Dog's Severed Ear

An unlicensed dog groomer accused of cutting off a dog's ear and gluing it back on will not face criminal charges, The Seattle Times reports.

Read the article >>

Parks Department at End of Its Leash

Backers and foes of new city regulations that would allow dogs off leashes in city parks during certain hours got one final chance to air their views, The N.Y. Daily News reports.

Read the article >>