

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (03-16-07).

Posted: March 16, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Physical Therapy for Dogs in Connecticut

After practicing physical therapy and sports medicine for close to two decades, Gail T. Henderson let her business go to the dogs, the Litchfield County Times (Conn.) reported.

Read the article >>

Pet Photographer Captures Dogs' Spirits

Patty Howe was born loving animals and loving to take photos. She combined her two passions several years ago when she started Patty's Pet Photography, Yourhub.com (Colorado) reported.

Read the article >>

Animal Cruelty Legislation Clears Senate Committee

Cruel treatment of dogs, cats and horses would become a felony under a bill recommended by the Senate Judiciary Committee, the Southwest Times Record (Ark.) reported.

Read the article >>

Dogs to Have Day in Court

Bedford County Board of Commissioners voted to adopt Article X of the proposed animal control regulations—the part dealing specifically with dangerous dogs—but to defer action on the rest of the document pending further study and public input, the Shelbyville Times-Gazette (Tenn.) reported.

Read the article >>

Kennel Owner Saves Her Animals, Herself from Fire

Kennel owner Darlene Clark risks serious injury to rescue her dogs during a fire in eastern Greene County, the Daily World (Ind.) reported.

Read the article >>