

The DogChannel Newswire (07-14-08)

Dogs sniff out cell phones in prison; dogs fight in church; and other dog news.

Posted: July 14, 2008, 5 a.m. EDT

Dozens of Dogs Seized From Property

About 80 dogs have been seized from a Marion County woman who had been squatting on a property for about four years, Marion County officials said, News-Journal.com (Texas) reports.

Read the article >>

Prisons Enlist Dogs to Keep Out Phones

Dogs have long been used to find drugs in prisons, but the Maryland Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services has found a new use for them: sniffing out cell phones, the Baltimore Sun reports.

Read the article >>

Praying With Man's Best Friend

A scuffle broke out between two congregants on a recent Sunday morning at Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd in Chicago's Galewood neighborhood. After about a minute of huffing, puffing, growling, and drooling, Pete the Pomeranian and Trevor the Poodle calmed down enough to rejoin the prayer service, the Chicago Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

10 Pit Bulls Seized in Michigan Dogfighting Investigation

Cruelty investigators seized 10 scarred pit bulls Thursday while investigating dogfighting allegations at a man's home in Ypsilanti, the Detroit Free Press reports.

Read the article >>