

The DogChannel Newswire (02-21-09)

Jury rejects woman's request for guide dog; 150 dogs, one tiger rescued in Missouri; and other news.

Posted: February 21, 2009, 5 a.m. EST

Kennel Club Event Showcases Top Dogs

Chicago's McCormick Place will be going to the dogs this weekend when the venue again hosts the International Kennel Club of Chicago Show, the Chicago Sun-Times reports.

Read now >>

No-Kill Clinic Almost Complete in Jacksonville

The $2.3 million First Coast No More Homeless Pets Clinic in Jacksonville, Fla., which at 16,000 square feet will reportedly be one of the five largest in the nation, is expected to be finished in two months, the Jacksonville Times-Union reports.

Read now >>

City of Chula Vista, Calif., Long Knew of Animal Shelter Woes

A veterinarian hired to review operations at the Chula Vista Animal Care Facility said she had complained about high euthanasia rates, lack of accountability, and unsanitary conditions long before the city acknowledged problems in its own report last week, the San Diego Union-Tribune reports.

Read now >>

Jury Rejects Iowa Woman's Request to Use Guide Dog

A jury rejected a Des Moines woman's claims that she was discriminated against when the Iowa Department for the Blind refused to let her use her guide dog during a training program, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>

150 Dogs, Tiger Rescued From Missouri Breeder

The Humane Society of Missouri says it rescued more than 150 dogs and a Bengal tiger from a substandard dog breeder, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>