

The DogChannel Newswire (03-11-09)

New ways to search for missing dogs; Terrier is top dog at Crufts; and other news.

Posted: March 11, 2009, 5 a.m. EST

New Ways to Look for Missing Pets

The same phone technology that makes political campaign robo-calls is now spreading the word about lost pets, the Washington Post reports.

Read now >>

Terrier Is Top Dog at Crufts

A Sealyham Terrier was named top dog at Crufts after a rough few months for the prestigious canine show due to concerns for the health of pedigree dogs, Agence France-Presse reports.

Read now >>

Blast, 3-Alarm Fire Damage Kennel, Animal Hospital

A three-alarm fire fueled by an explosion destroyed a massive section of an animal hospital and kennel, killing at least one dog and one cat, the Boston Globe reports.

Read now >>

Native Minnesotan Takes the Lead in Alaska's Iditarod Sled Dog Race

A native Minnesotan took the lead Tuesday in the Iditarod, the world's most prestigious sled dog race, the Minneapolis Star Tribune reports.

Read now >>

Injured 'Miracle Dog' Recovers, Finds New Home

Gideon called a "Miracle Dog," after having survived being hit and dragged by a car more than three months ago, the Orange County (Calif.) Register reports. Read now >>