

The DogChannel Newswire (04-06-09)

Iowa bill on care of guide dogs gets OK; seized puppies arrive in Kansas City; and other news.

Posted: April 6, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Senate OKs Bill on Care of Guide Dogs

Iowans who are blind could soon get government assistance to help pay for the annual care of their guide dogs, DesMoinesRegister.com reports.

Read now >>

Seized Puppies Arrive to Kansas City

Friday at the Kansas City Animal Shelter, workers plucked about 100 dogs from pickup loads of pet carriers, one by one, KansasCity.com reports.

Read now >>

Where's the Dog, Mr. President?

As if trying to rally the world behind his economic policies weren't enough, President Barack Obama is being pressed to make a decision about his dog, BaltimoreSun.com reports.

Read now >>

Florida Pet Festival Lets Dogs Be Dogs

A pet festival in Sunrise, Fla., attracted hundreds of animal lovers to spend time and money on their favorite four-legged pals, the Miami-Herald reports.

Read now >>

Rabies Alert Issued for Orange County, Fla.

The Orange County Health Department said three dogs came in contact with rabid raccoons, cfnews13.com reports.

Read now >>