

The DogChannel Newswire (04-08-09)

Dog found alive after being lost at sea; choosing a car with a dog in mind; and other news.

Posted: April 8, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Australian Dog Found Alive on Island Four Months After Being Lost at Sea

When Jan and Dave Griffith lost their pet, an Australian Cattle Dog named Sophie Tucker, on a boating trip in November, they thought she was gone for good, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read now >>

'Deep Snout' Offers Clues on First Dog

Veterinarian Debbye Turner Bell looks for clues at the White House about what type of dog the Obamas will take home, cbsnews.com reports.

Read now >>

On This Road, They Call It Puppy Love

Hang around at a dog park, and you soon see how dog owners choose their vehicles with their dogs in mind, USA Today reports.

Read now >>

Missing Service Dog-in-Training Graham Found

After a five-day disappearance, Graham the missing service dog-in-training returned home to Palm Beach, Fla., PalmBeachDailyNews.com reports.

Read now >>

Pennsylvania Court Asked to Close Lancaster County Breeder

A judge said he would decide soon whether to shut down a major Lancaster County dog kennel that has had numerous run-ins with Pennsylvania authorities over the years, the Philadelphia Inquirer reports.

Read now >>