

The DogChannel Newswire (05-21-09)

Students collect pennies for pets; dogs' lives saved by pet oxygen masks; and other news.

Posted: May 21, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Dogs' Lives Saved by Pet Oxygen Masks After Fire

Firefighters administered oxygen to a Chihuahua – one of two dogs they found unresponsive after fire swept through a mobile home, Nbcaugusta.com reports.

Read now >>

New Animal Shelter in the Works

A new animal shelter may be built in Independence, Kan. The city would run the facility, which would be built by Jackson County, the Kansas City Star reports.

Read now >>

Students Bring In Pennies for Pets

Students at Immaculate Conception School raised nearly $1,000 recently during the Pennies for Pets fundraiser to help fund the Humane Society of Ottawa County, with the fifth-grade class winning a pizza party and a visit by Humane Society shelter staff and residents, the Port Clinton (Ohio) News Herald reports.

Read now >>

Couple Charged With Throwing Dog From Car

A Chihuahua survives getting tossed from the window of an SUV, Thebostonchannel.com reports.

Read now >>