

The DogChannel Newswire (05-22-09)

Dachshund adopts tiger cub in German zoo; dog gives birth to 20 puppies; and other news.

Posted: May 22, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Dachshund Adopts Tiger Cub in German Zoo

A zoo representative said the Dachshund "fell in love" with the orphaned tiger cub and has proved a capable guardian, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read now >>

Struggling Pet Owners Offered Help

The Kentucky Humane Society says it will hand out free pet food beginning this weekend to families who need it, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>

Dog Gives Birth to 20 Puppies

Michael Stewart and his wife Deana Stewart couldn't believe their eyes when their dog Dixie gave birth to 20 puppies — 10 females and 10 males.

Read now >>

Film Mutts Battle It Out for Cannes Dog Prize

The race for the top canine prize at Cannes was shaping up well Wednesday with a wartime pooch rivaling the hordes of 3D dogs from a Disney comedy that kicked off the festival, the Palm Dog's organizer said, AFP reports.

Read now >>

Pennsylvania Man Jailed in Alleged Attack on 'Devil Dog'

A western Pennsylvania man is jailed on charges he beat a pit bull with a concrete block after telling witnesses he was God and the dog was the devil, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>