

The DogChannel Newswire (05-23-09)

Making time for Bo Obama; Humane Society sees Vick as an ally, not a pariah; and other news.

Posted: May 23, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Making Time for Bo

Who's walking Bo? Well, the Obamas are taking shifts, The New York Times reports.

Read now >>

Humane Society Sees Vick as an Ally, Not a Pariah

Wayne Pacelle, chief executive of the Humane Society of the United States, recently broke ranks with much of the animal rights community and forged a partnership with Michael Vick, The New York Times reports.

Read now >>

New Midtown Sacramento Dog Park Opens Saturday

The latest city-maintained dog park will open Saturday in midtown Sacramento with doggie drinking fountains, shade canopies and three acres of room to roam, the Sacramento Bee reports.

Read now >>

Blaze After Dog Switches on Oven

A kitchen blaze was caused when a family dog somehow managed to switch on an oven, BBC News (U.K.) reports.

Read now >>

Man Gets House Arrest, Counseling in Dog Abuse

A Pittsburgh man must spend 18 months on house arrest and continue to receive psychiatric counseling for beating a dog with a nail-filled board, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>