Paris Hilton has built a miniature version of her Mediterranean-style Beverly Hills mansion – for her dogs.

The heiress and reality TV star allegedly posted pictures on Twitter of the poolside kennel, which looks just like her house, right down to the miniature versions of her furniture.

“I love and treat my puppies as if they were my own children,” Hilton posted. “I have to admit, I may have spoiled them a little too much. But how can I not? Just look at those sweet lil’ faces, they deserve to be treated like my lil’ prince and princesses :) I love my babies.”

The air-conditioned and heated poolside abode features a spiral staircase, a wardrobe for the designer dog coats, a black chandelier and “Chewy Vuitton” beds.

Hilton reportedly owns 13 dogs, including Pomeranians Marilyn Monroe, Dolce and Prince Baby Bear, and Chihuahuas Harajuku Bitch and Tinkerbelle. Tinkerbelle starred alongside Hilton in her first reality TV show, “The Simple Life.”
