

The DogChannel Newswire (07-31-09)

Dog reunited with family nine years later; dogs find shelter at indoor dog park; and other news.

Posted: July 31, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Australian Dog Found Nine Years On, 1,200 Miles Away

Nine years after vanishing from outside her Australian family's home, Muffy the dog was found alive and well this month in another backyard — 1,200 miles away — officials said Thursday, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>

New Home for Blind Dog and Guide

A new home has been found for a blind Border Collie and his very own guide dog which were both found on a country road in Suffolk, England. The dogs, who have been named Bonnie and Clyde, were taken to a shelter and could not be separated, BBC News reports.

Read now >>

Dogs Find Shelter From the Swelter at Unleashed

Surely no one in Dallas prays for terrible weather like Kelly Acree. But she's got $10 million riding on rotten. Kelly is president and co-founder of Unleashed, the nation's first indoor dog park, where bad weather means good business, The Dallas Morning News reports.

Read now >>

N.J. Judge Weighs Custody of Pug After Breakup

A judge in New Jersey is weighing who should get custody of a pet dog three years after a couple broke up. The case of Dexter the Pug has been a legal breakthrough for pet custody in the Garden State, The Associated Press reports.

Read now >>