

Dog Reunites Jude Law and Sienna Miller

The former flames meet up at a party honoring Miller's mixed-breed dog.

Posted: October 16, 2009, 5 a.m. EDT

Old flames Jude Law and Sienna Miller reunited for an evening last week at a party in New York City honoring Miller's mixed-breed dog, Bess, the U.K.'s Sun newspaper reported.

The terrier mix recently recovered from a serious kidney infection, and the former couple's mutual pal Johnny Lee Miller, who's costarring with Sienna Miller on Broadway in "After Miss Julie," wanted to throw a party. Law had given Miller the dog when they first started dating.

A source told the newspaper that Miller and Law appeared "delighted" to see each other.

Law is in the Big Apple starring in Broadway's "Hamlet," and will star with Robert Downey Jr. in the Guy Ritchie-directed "Sherlock Holmes," opening Christmas Day. He has three children with ex-wife Sadie Frost, and recently welcomed a fourth child, Sophia, with model and aspiring actress Samantha Burke.