Which dog struck the silliest pose? Which senior dog has the best smile? Best Friends Animal Society invites animal lovers to cast their votes in its Best-in-Show Photo Contest, posted on its website.

Pet owners have uploaded photos into four different contest categories: Best Ears, Silliest Pose, Best New Nutty Breed and Sexiest Senior. Visitors to the Best Friends website can vote for up to five animals in each category. The photo that earns the most votes in each category wins, and the photo that receives the most votes overall will be crowned "Best in Show."

The voting period ends Dec. 18, 2007, and the winning photos will be posted on the Best Friends website on Dec. 21. Winners will receive prizes donated by Photacular.
