

California Wildfire Updates for Dog Owners

Stay informed about the latest on the California wildfires and how they're affecting dog owners in the region.

California Wildfire Pet Resources

Find important links to hotlines and rescue organizations assisting pets affected by the California fires (10/25/07). More >>

Dogs Evacuated Due to Fires Are Safely Returned

Helen Woodward Animal Center evacuated close to 400 animals in less than four hours (10/27/07). More >>

Mobile Unit to Aid Dogs in California Fires

A Banfield mobile pet hospital will be dispatched to assist with dog and cat emergencies (10/26/07). More >>

Iams Establishes Wildfire Pet Hotline

Pet health professionals will answer dog owner inquiries regarding the California wildfires (10/25/07). More >>

California Shelters Well Equipped, AKC Says

AKC spokesperson says emergency animal shelters appear fully stocked with dog supplies (10/25/07). More >>

Free Boarding for Dogs Affected by Wildfires

Southern California VCA animal hospitals offer free boarding for dogs displaced by current fires (10/24/07). More >>

Evacuees Flee With Dogs, Other Pets

Fire evacuees with dogs, cats, and other pets congregate at a Red Cross evacuation center in El Toro, California (10/24/07). More >>

Petco Aids Dog Victims in California Fires

San Diego County Petco stores donate pet supplies to evacuees (10/24/07). More >>

Fires Show Need for Dog-Friendly Evacuations

A study by the American Humane Association reveals many dog owners won't leave animals behind (10/23/07). More >>

Share Your Thoughts!

Have you or someone you know been affected by the California fires? Have you ever had to evacuate with your dog? Share your stories! More >>