Cell phone users can download the interactive dog game from CelluFun.

October 27, 2005 Cell phone users can download MobilePet Dog, a multi-player interactive game, for free through CelluFun LLC's website.

Gamers can choose between a poodle and a Chihuahua dog to feed, bathe and play with. If the dog is ignored for too long, it will need to visit the dreaded digital pet doctor. If it is neglected, it dies.

The company also is offering free downloads of MobilePet Monkey. The mobile phone game allows players to care for either a monkey or an ape.
