

Cutest Holiday Pet Photo Contest

Pet with most holiday spirit wins gift cards and a years supply of pet food.

Shutterfly, an online photo service, and Petco.com have paired to offer the Cutest Holiday Pet Photo Contest, through which contestants have the chance to win Petco gift cards and a years supply of pet food. The contest begins immediately and runs through Dec. 16, 2005. It is open to Shutterfly members.

To enter, contestants submit holiday-inspired photos of their pets online to Shutterflys contest website. Both members and non-members can view contest entries online and vote for their favorites using a five-star system. Winners are based on popular vote.
