

Hollywood Hounds

Blog chronicles stars and the dogs they adore.

Add Celebrity Dog Blog to our list of guilty pleasures.

The website, which compiles photos of celebrities and their dogs, is a must-visit for any dog lover. Visitors will see actor Jake Gyllenhaal strut down a California beach cradling his Puggle, Boo Radley, with German Shepherd Dog-mix Atticus by his side. Another photo shows singer Gwen Stefani walking down a London street with an adorable puppy Puli, a recent addition to her growing family with rocker Gavin Rossdale.

Visitors can also search for stars by name, from Ashlee Simpson (dog: Blondie) to Britney Spears (Bit-Bit, who's almost just as famous as Britney herself).

Who needs Entertainment Tonight, when you can have this?
