

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (04-11-07).

Posted: April 11, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Tainted Pet Food Victims Estimated at 39,000

Pet food contaminated with an industrial chemical may have sickened or killed 39,000 cats and dogs in the U.S., the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Clinic Struggles to Make Ends Meet

The new Spay Today clinic has played its part in reducing unwanted dog and cat births, but is still struggling to get on firm financial footing, The (Pitt County, N.C.) Daily Reflector reports.

Read the article >>

Justices Grill Lawyers on Both Sides of Dog Park Case

The dogs had their day in Michigan Supreme Court as the state's top justices grilled a pair of attorneys for more than an hour this morning about whether canines should be allowed to run leashless in a park, The Detroit Free-Press reports.

Read the article >>

DVD-Sniffing Dogs to Stay in Malaysia

Two Labrador Retrievers that have become celebrities in Malaysia for sniffing out massive stashes of counterfeit DVDs will have their stint extended to help authorities hound movie pirates, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Biting Incidents Leads Town to Revise Dog Bylaw

A town is revising its canine control bylaws, following several incidents in which people were bitten by an aggressive, unleashed dog, The Montreal (P.Q., Canada) Chronicle reports.

Read the article >>