

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (04-12-07).

Posted: April 12, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Pet Food Insider Sold Shares Weeks Before Recall

The chief financial officer of Menu says it's a "horrible coincidence" that he sold nearly half his units in the troubled pet food maker less than three weeks before a massive recall of tainted pet food, The Toronto Globe & Mail reports.

Read the article >>

'Year of the Dog' No Easy Sell

One of the spring's most personal movies is also one of the most difficult to market, The Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Toronto Eyes New Dog Rules

The city of Toronto may follow through on a proposed bylaw that would require pet owners to poop, scoop, and carry the bundle back home, The Toronto (O.N., Canada) Globe and Mail reports.

Read the article >>

Member of Chained Dog Study Panel Has Ties to Dog Fighting

A member of a citizens' committee studying whether the county should limit the practice of tethering dogs on chains or ropes has an association with a convicted dog fighter, The Durham (N.C.) Independent reports.

Read the article >>

Pet Owners Give Clinic a Shot in the Wake of Rabies Scare

During a rabies clinic, a line of pet owners stretched out the door of the Worcester Health and Human Services Department, The Worcester (Mass.) Telegram & Gazette reports.

Read the article >>