

The DogChannel Newswire

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country (04-18-07).

Posted: April 18, 2006, 5 a.m. EDT

Rescued Dogs Finally Arrive in Bay Area

Thirty-nine of 71 dogs rescued from an Arkansas puppy-breeding kennel arrived in the San Francisco area Monday night, where they immediately received veterinary attention and lots of love as they were readied for foster homes, The (California) Argus reports.

Read the article >>

Couple File Suit, Say Dog Was Neglected

A couple is suing a dog grooming business after their dog died of heatstroke, The Gloucester (Mass.) Daily Times reports.

Read the article >>

One Word Is a Powerful Lesson for Dog

After housetraining, "sit" may be the most important thing you can teach your dog. Once your dog learns that sitting earns him a treat, you hold the cure to many problems, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Coast Guard Finds its Dog – in a Container

Almost two days after she was reported missing, a 1-year-old Labrador Retriever mascot of the Port Canaveral Coast Guard Station was found in a locked steel container full of flares and other pyrotechnics, Florida Today reports.

Read the article >>

Pennsylvania Dog Law Changes Debated

A regulatory panel has criticized the Pennsylvania Agriculture Department's proposed overhaul of state dog law, saying it "significantly understated" the cost to breeders and failed to take into account the diverse types of kennels in the state, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>