

The DogChannel Newswire (05-24-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: May 24, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Utah Fetches National Dog Hunting Championship

What many call the "Super Bowl" of dog hunting comes to Utah thanks to a Salt Lake couple, The Salt Lake (Utah) Tribune reports.

Read the article >>

Owners Could Face Fines for Dog Waste

Kalamazoo dog owners may soon be required to have a different kind of "doggie bag" with them when they take their pooches out for a walk, The Kalamazoo (Mich.) Gazette reports.

Read the article >>

Dogs in Vick Case Will Likely Be Euthanized

The dogs at the center of the dogfighting investigation that includes NFL star quarterback Michael Vick probably will be euthanized, The (Hampton Roads, Va.) Daily Press reports.

Read the article >>

'Skins Apologize for Portis' Remarks on Dog Fighting

The Washington Redskins apologized Tuesday for comments running back Clinton Portis made during a television interview ridiculing authorities for pursuing possible dogfighting charges against Michael Vick, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Dogs Dumped in Forest

Nine dogs tied to trees without food or water, and a 10th dog roaming nearby were rescued from Capitol State Forest on May 11, but Animal Services held off publicizing the discovery to give the owner a chance to come forward, The (Olympia, Wash.) Olympian reports.

Read the article >>