

The DogChannel Newswire (07-06-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: July 6, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Texas Inmate Drowns During Prison Dog Training Session

The man, who helped train dogs to track escapees by "laying tracks," drowned trying to cross a rain-swollen creek, the Houston Chronicle reports.

Read the article >>

Woman Walking Dog on Florida Beach Finds World War II Bomb

Authorities later detonated the live, barnacle-encrusted, 100-pound bomb that a woman found while walking her dog, the Miami Herald reports.

Read the article >>

Couple, Labrador Retriever Rescued in High Water in Aspen, Colo.

About 60 rescuers from local fire departments and other organizations left July 4 parade to rescue the three from an icy culvert, the Denver Post reports.

Read the article >>

Hilton's Used Dog Food Can Fetches $305

The can, taken from Paris Hilton's trash, had generated a bogus bid of more than $1.5 million in an eBay auction, WCBS reports.

Read the article >>

The Fix Is in for Pet Control

Subsidy programs help nip the problem of unwanted animals, and is proving much more effective than adopting out the pet overpopulation, USA Today reports.

Read the article >>