

The DogChannel Newswire (08-13-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: August 13, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Double-Nosed Dog Not To Be Sniffed At

An explorer encounters a dog with two noses while on an expedition in Bolivia, the BBC News reports.

Read the article >>

Editorial: Canine Recreation Is an Economic Investment

Dog parks are a quality-of-life issue for families, and should be part of the equation to attract and retain a well-educated work force, the Lansing State Journal (Michigan) reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Gone Good Dog Nurses Kittens

A three-year-old Shih-Tzu took over maternal duties when the mother of four kittens died just two weeks after giving birth, CBS Channel 4 (Missouri) reports.

Read the article >>

Carjackers Attack Driver, Threaten to Sic Dog on Her

Police are searching for two men who carjacked a woman and threatened her with a knife and their 70-pound dog, the Miami Herald reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Injured by Bark Collar at Kennel, Owners Livid

The dog's owners returned from vacation to find their pet's neck dotted with puncture wounds as a result of wearing a collar that delivered electric shocks, CBS Channel 11 (Dallas) reports.

Read the article >>