

The DogChannel Newswire (09-05-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: September 5, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

The Right Food for Your Pet

A veterinarian offers some advice to ensure pets consume a nutritionally sound and safe diet, Parade reports.

Read the article >>

In Iraq, A Man Is Bereft of His Life, His Dog

An Iraqi staffer in the Los Angeles Times' Baghdad Bureau shares the story of his dog, Lucky, who he had to give to his brother because there's too much gunfire in his neighborhood, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Multimillionaire Dog Can't Buy Herself a Friend

One of Leona Helmsley's former staffers claims she was bitten by the now-wealthy dog several times; she is considering going after the dog's $12 million inheritance, The New York Times reports.

Read the article >>

Veterans Visit California Memorial to Honor War Dogs

Memorial gives veterans a place to pay tribute to dogs that served with them in war and even saved their lives. Most were left behind, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Dogs Give Prosecutors a Hand in Difficult Cases

Prosecutors in King County (Washington) are using dogs to help young children reveal details of the violent crimes they've experienced, such as sexual abuse or domestic violence, the Seattle Post-Intelligencer reports.

Read the article >>