

The DogChannel Newswire (09-06-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: September 6, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Research: Secondhand Smoke May Cause Cancer in Household Pets

Secondhand smoke is not only harmful to humans, it may also cause cancer in household pets such as dogs, cats and birds, FOX News reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Racing Foes Release Report Detailing Injuries

Massachusetts racetracks reported 728 injuries to Greyhound dogs in the past five years, with nearly 80 percent involving broken bones, The Boston Globe reports.

Read the article >>

Do You Like Pets Better Than People?

Based on what we spend, one opinion writer thinks the answer is yes, CBS News reports.

Read the article >>

Whoopi Goldberg Denies Defending Michael Vick

Whoopi Goldberg spent her second day on "The View" denying she ever defended Michael Vick and saying the media misunderstood when she said she could see how Vick could get into dogfighting growing up in the South, FOX News reports.

Read the article >>

Lawsuit Over Barking Dog Ends

The State of California drops action on behalf of a condominium unit owner who said she was discriminated against because of the noisy pet she needed for comfort, the Daily Breeze reports.

Read the article >>