

The DogChannel Newswire (09-15-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: September 15, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Lance Armstrong Foundation Sues Pet Collar Company

The lawsuit states the yellow "Barkstrong" and "Purrstrong" collars infringe on Armstrong's trademark, The Austin (Tex.) American-Statesman reports.

Read the article >>

Care and Pampering Going to the Dogs

Owners are treating their animal companions more like humans, but the extent gives some experts pause, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Attack at NFL Player's Home

Cincinnati Bengals cornerback Deltha O'Neal's home was the scene of a dog attack Thursday morning in Batavia Township, Ohio, where a Rottweiler bit a woman and her 3-year-old son, The Cincinnati Post reports.

Read the article >>

L.A. Animal Services Commissioner Quits, Cites Agency Problems

The Los Angeles mayor recently announced the city is the number one public animal adoption agency in the United States, although animal rights groups disagreed. A few days later, one of his five appointed Animal Services commissioners resigned with harsh criticism of the department, Channel 7 News (Los Angeles) reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Advocates Seek Tough Sentence for Vick, Shelter for Animals

Eleven dog advocacy groups have asked a federal judge to sentence Michael Vick to nearly five years in prison and to seize the property he used for dogfighting so that it can be turned into a shelter for abused dogs, The Virginian-Pilot reports.

Read the article >>