

The DogChannel Newswire (10-02-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: October 2, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Dognapping Tale Has Happy Ending

After weeks of losing sleep and barely eating, Tom Finley got the call he'd been waiting for Saturday: His beloved dog, Reba, had been turned in at an animal shelter after someone stole her Sept. 7., Sun Times (Chicago) reported.

Read the article >>

Dogs Show Their Iron in Race

The race is a 1 1/2-mile agility course designed to simulate real-life scenarios where police dogs and their handlers might be deployed, and includes a paintball shoot, evidence recovery exercise, water crossing, and 100-yard dash, Burlington Free Press reported.

Read the article >>

Book Reveals Royals Love of Dogs

Previously unseen photographs from King George VI's family album have been published in a new book about Royals and their loyal four-legged friends, The Press Association reports.

Read the article >>

Cats and Dogs, Kids Grab the Limelight

Children and animals filled the stage for the first Animal Protection Guild fashion show, which benefits the group's low cost spay-neuter program, The Akron Beacon Journal (Ohio) reported.

Read the article >>

Children's Book Designed to Make Children Laugh

Author Peter Catalan Otto wrote children's book "Ivan the Terrier" to entertain and make children laugh, Wall Street Journal reported (subscription may be required).

Read the article >>