

The DogChannel Newswire (10-24-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: October 24, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Disaster Relief Groups Seek Volunteers

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and an animal rescue group are seeking volunteers and donations to help animals affected by the California wildfires, The Los Angeles Times reports.

Read the article >>

Pink Harness Helps Locate Dog on the Run

A reminder of one dog's brave battle against cancer helped another find her way home after a five-day adventure, The Redding Pilot (Connecticut) reports.

Read the article >>

Bomb-Sniffing Dog Dies in the Line of Duty

An Air Force Security Forces dog trained to sniff out explosives was killed in a Baghdad explosion last month that knocked his handler unconscious, The Air Force Times (Virginia) reports.

Read the article >>

Groomer Charged in Dog Poisoning

An Illinois dog groomer was charged with throwing antifreeze-laced meat over a fence and poisoning two show dogs, The Peoria (Ill.) Journal Star reports.

Read the article >>

Dog Saves Jogger From Attack

An attempted assault on a female jogger is thwarted after her 120-pound Labrador Retriever intervened and bit the man on his thigh, prompting him to run away, The Atlanta-Journal Constitution reports.

Read the article >>