

The DogChannel Newswire (12-31-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: December 31, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Hotels Go to the Dogs

The rising acceptance of pets in hotels is pitting the 63 percent of U.S. households that own pets against the estimated 17 percent of the U.S. population that tests positive to cat or dog allergens, The Wall Street Journal reports.

Read the article >>

Chihuahua Helps Police Find Suspect

A three-pound Chihuahua mix named Tink helped police capture a fugitive after the dog found the suspected minivan thief hiding under a motor home, the Associated Press reports.

Read the article >>

Residents Worry Coyotes Are Losing Fear of People

After a coyote attacked two dogs and injured a woman in Erie, Colo., some residents believe the animals are losing their fear of people, making it tougher to keep them at bay, ABC 7 News (Colorado) reports.

Read the article >>

Woman Allowed to Keep a Few of the 237 Dogs Seized

An elderly woman will get to keep three of the 237 dogs that were removed from her Texas home, but her lawyer says her dog breeding days are over, the Houston Chronicle reports.

Read the article >>