

The DogChannel Newswire (01-07-08)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: January 7, 2008, 5 a.m. EST

Teen Offenders Learn Life Lessons by Training Dogs

Homeless dogs who were on "death row" arrive at the Echo Glen juvenile-rehabilitation facility in Washington from area shelters and are each paired with a teenager. The teens learn how to train the dogs and, in the process, learn critical life lessons, The Seattle Times reports.

Read the article >>

Woman Tries to Rescue Dog But Maroons Them Both on Pond

An Ohio University student thought she had a plan for rescuing her dog from an icy pond but then got the two of them stranded in a canoe, WTOL-TV (Ohio) reports.

Read the article >>

Man Says Wolves Killed Hunting Dog, Wounded Another

A Montana man says wolves killed one of his hunting dogs and severely wounded another during a recent mountain lion hunt west of Kalispell, KPAX-TV (Montana) reports.

Read the article >>

Dogfighting Raid Nets 36 Pit Bulls

Authorities in Saline County, Ark., seized 36 pit bulls and dogfighting equipment in raids of two suspected dog fighting sites, Eyewitness News Memphis (Tenn.) reports.

Read the article >>

Texans Player Cited Again Allowing Dogs to Escape Property

Houston Texans player Jerome Mathis was once again cited for allowing his pit bulls to escape his Brazoria County, Texas, property, KPRC-TV (Texas) reports.

Read the article >>