Dog and Cat's Friendship Continues After Death

Oscar the dog and his best friend, Arthur the cat, were inseparable in life. So, when 17-year-old Arthur died, Oscar was left inconsolable. Their owners buried Arthur in the garden. But Oscar's love for his friend would not die – and during the night, he pulled the cat from his grave, carried him inside, laid him in the basket they used to share and gently cleaned him up, Metro (U.K.) reports.
