

The DogChannel Newswire (03-01-08)

Stay up-to-date with the latest dog news from all around the country.

Posted: March 1, 2008, 5 a.m. EST

Dogs Trap Mail Carrier, Flatten Tires

A mail carrier was trapper inside her car for nearly two hours at a home near Hanover, Pa., after a pair of dogs attacked her tires, flattening three of them. When police arrived, the dogs attacked the cruiser's tire as well, the Associated Press reports. Read the article >>

The Dog Days of Real Estate

A San Francisco Chronicle columnist examines the growing popularity of dog-friendly real estate, citing agents who host dog parties, manage dog park directories, and network at dog parks. Read the article >>

Police Dogs Can Again Go Home With Handlers

Police dogs who work for the Cumberland County, Maine, Sheriff's Department can once again go home with their handlers while off-duty rather than having to be kept in commercial kennels, the Boston Globe reports. Read the article >>

Genetic Cancer Link Between Humans and Dogs Discovered

Cancer researchers at the University of Minnesota and North Carolina State University have found that humans and dogs share more than friendship and companionship – they also share the same genetic basis for certain types of cancer, Science Daily reports. Read the article >>

Dogs Trainer to Aid Autistic Children

It is estimated that more than 72,000 children aged between three and 10 have autism in the UK. Now a campaign has been launched to raise £1 million to provide specially trained dogs to help youngsters with the condition, BBC News reports. Read the article >>